There is a doctor in our town,
A man of practice and renown;
He makes a handsome fincome clear,
And tays up money every year.
Now, when he started out in youth,
He had but little cash in train; But still he'd tey his best to do, He attended lectures, studied hard, And very quickly passed the board; He opened office, hung out sign, But many patients could not find. Each day be eat, with saddened face,

Now patients focked from far and near, And kept him busy all the year; Men and women, all declare, No doctor can with him compare. No doctor can with him compare.
